Finance

a. The Committee discussed proposals of the 2024-2025 Precept to enable further discussion at the next Full Council meeting. Cllr Garritt noted he was querying the deadline for submission with North Lincolnshire Council. Cllr Kofoed noted that the Royal British Legion had advised donations made prior to 1st October go into the local fund and donations received afterwards go into the central fund. It was noted that staff costs, future projects and civic event costs needed to be taken into account.

b. The Committee considered the request for costings for speed indicator signage to be included in the 2024-2025 Precept. It was noted that the Town Council is not a highways authority.

RESOLUTION: That a request is taken to the next Neighbourhood Action Team (NAT) meeting to request the continued provision of speed indicator signage for the town on a rotating basis.

ACTION: NAT representatives

c. The Committee considered the request for funding of PDF software. The Clerk outlined requirements and costs.

RESOLUTION: That funding up to £55 is approved from the Administration IT budget for the purchase of PDF software.
