It was noted that the Eagle Squadron Memorial had been moved. The tree works would be scheduled in shortly. The Parish Pump sign was shown to the committee and it was agreed that it had turned out well.
- FGP16/19 To receive the Cemetery report and approve any actions
There had been one burial this month. Nothing further to report.
- FGP16/20 To discuss issues of access to property across The Green
The Clerk had found an item in an amendment to the covenant which stated the Town Council would not allow parking on The Green. It was agreed that the householder's deeds needed to be seen in conjunction with this. Cllr Frankish would provide the Clerk with a phone number for the householder.
- FGP16/21 To consider any items relating to the management and running of the Kirton Klipper
The June figures showed that the route to the garden centre is being used. A full page piece would be put in Kirton First advertising the service and a copy sent to the Clerk for distribution by other means. The Project Manager had decided to give notice on the roll and a new one would be required. Details would be provided to the Clerk for advertisement.
- FGP16/22 To approve accounts for payment
Resolved to approve all accounts for payment.
